SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION FOR FINAL PERMISSION FOR THE DEBTORS TO USE CASH COLLATERAL AND OBTAIN DEBTOR IN POSSESSION FINANCING, AND GRANTING ADEQUATE PROTECTION, SUPERPRIORITY CLAIMS AND PRIMING LIENS

Come now JCE Delaware, Inc., J.C Evans Construction Holdings, Inc., a Texas Corporation, J.C. Evans Nevada, LLC, EQUUS Development Inc., J.C. Evans Construction Co. LP, and Adkins Land Development, LP” (collectively, the “Debtors”) and file this Supplemental Motion For Final Permission to Use Cash Collateral and Obtain Debtor in Possession Financing, and Granting Adequate Protection, Superpriority Claims and Priming Liens (the “Motion”), and would show as follows:

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. JC Evans Construction Co., L.P. and Adkins Land Development, L.P. own and operate a heavy equipment construction firm and a rock quarry. A full description of the Debtors operations and history is set forth in the Declaration of Blake Kuhlman in Support of First Day Motions, filed herein. To continue their operations in an orderly manner on a post petition basis, the Debtors need to use funds from operations and to obtain Debtor in Possession loans from Liberty Mutual Insurance Company/Safeco (the “Bonding Company”). By this Motion, the Debtors hereby seek entry of an order permitting them to use funds generated from their business operations to complete existing construction contracts and operate the Quarry (defined below). Further, the Debtors seek permission to borrow on a post petition basis as Debtor in Possession up to $5 million from the Bonding Company (“DIP Financing”) to pay any shortfalls in the costs of completing the existing construction projects and operating the Debtors.

2. Previously, the Debtors filed their Motion for Interim and Final Permission to Use Cash Collateral and Obtain Debtor in Possession Financing, and Granting Adequate Protection, Superpriority Claims and Priming Liens [Docket No. 10]. By Order dated August 8, 2011, the Court granted the Motion, however, the Order was later modified by the Court’s decision to grant a Motion for Reconsideration. This Motion requests that the Court authorize DIP Financing up to the amount of $5 million, extends the request to use cash collateral until October 15, 2011 and provides protections to both First State Bank of Central Texas (“Bank”) and the Surety.

3. To obtain the requested DIP Financing, the Debtor proposes to grant to the Bonding Company as security therefore (i) a superpriority administrative claim, (ii) a junior lien on any unencumbered property of the estate, and (iii) a lien on the estate’s real property that is pari passu with the Bank. The debtors’ real estate consists principally of a 700 acre quarry in Williamson County and approximately 28 acres in and around the Debtors’ operating facility in Leander, Texas, Williamson County. The value of these real estate assets are believed by the Debtors to far exceed the aggregate amounts owed to the Bank. The Bank also has lien claims on certain heavy equipment that includes equipment where the Bank has a first lien on equipment with a value of over $5 million and a second lien on equipment with a value over and above the pari passu lien treatment.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. The Debtors commenced the cases by filing petitions for relief on August 1, 2011. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. sections 1334 and 157. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(D) and (M). Venue is proper in the Austin Division of the Western District of Texas as the Debtors are headquartered in Leander, Williamson County, Texas and most of their assets are located there as well.

III. BACKGROUND

The Debtors

5. For a full description of the Company's history, see the Declaration of Blake Kuhlman in Support of First Day Motions [Docket No. 3] and also the prior Motion For Interim and Final Permission to Use Cash Collateral and Obtain Debtor in Possession Financing, and Granting Adequate Protection, Superpriority Claims and Priming Liens [Docket No. 10].

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

6. By filing this Motion, the Debtors respectfully request continuing permission from this Court to use cash collateral in which the Bank and Bonding Company assert an interest from the Petition Date through, and including, October 15, 2011, to provide the Bank and Bonding Company with adequate protection to the extent of any diminution in the value of their respective interests in the cash collateral. A budget will be filed prior to the hearing set for September 1, 2011, and will identify expenses to be incurred and paid during first month of the bankruptcy cases. The budget separately describes income and expenses on bonded jobs, and income and expenses from other sources including the quarry operations and non-bonded jobs.

7. Specifically, the Debtors request permission to use cash collateral pursuant to an agreed budget, as it may be amended from time to time by the Bonding Company and the Debtors (with notice to the Bank and other parties in interest) to fund post petition operations and pay the costs of administering these bankruptcies. In return, the Debtors propose to provide the following protections:

- (a) Cash Collateral Adequate Assurance: Post petition replacement liens on the accounts receivables generated from post petition collections of receivables, and continuation of prepetition liens with the same effect, priority and security as existed prepetition.
- (b) DIP Financing Loan:
 - (i) Superpriority administrative claim for amount of DIP loan advances'
 - (ii) lien on unencumbered assets and junior lien on all other assets;
 - (iii) lien on real estate assets as to which the Bank has a first lien, on a pari passu basis with the Bank.

8. A proposed form of order granting the requested relief which is virtually identical to the existing order will be uploaded.

V. ARGUMENTS AND AUTHORITY

9. Section 363(c) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a debtor-in-possession may use cash collateral if all interested entities consent or the court, after notice and a hearing, authorizes such use. Section 363(e) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the use of cash collateral be prohibited or conditioned as is necessary to provide adequate protection to persons that have an interest in cash collateral. In re DeSardi, 340 B.R. 790, 797 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2006) (“Adequate protection is . . . grounded in the belief that secured creditors should not be deprived of the benefit of their bargain”). Read together, sections 363(c) and (e) of the Bankruptcy Code authorize a debtor-in-possession to use the cash collateral of a secured creditor if such creditor’s collateral is adequately protected. See In re Harrington & Richardson, Inc., 48 B.R. 431, 433 (Bankr. D. Mass. 1985) (finding that the court may authorize the use of cash collateral upon a showing that those with an interest in the cash collateral are adequately protected).

10. Although the term “adequate protection” is not precisely defined in the Bankruptcy Code, section 361 sets forth three non-exclusive examples of what may constitute adequate protection: (1) periodic cash payments equivalent to the decrease in value of the creditor’s interest in the property; (2) an additional or replacement lien on other unencumbered property of the debtor; or (3) other relief that provides the indubitable equivalent of the creditor’s property interest. United Sav. Ass’n of Tex. v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Assocs., Ltd. (In re Timbers of Inwood Forest Assocs., Ltd.), 793 F.2d 1380, 1388 (5th Cir. 1986). “[T]he debtor-in-possession has the burden of proof on the issue of adequate protection.” In re Cafeteria Operators, L.P., 299 B.R. 400, 406 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2003).

11. The Bank and Bonding Company respective interests in the Cash Collateral are “adequately protected” within the meaning of section 361 and “preserved” within the meaning of section 506(c) because the cash collateral will be used to pay for operations of the construction business. Continued operations aid these secured creditors in several ways. First, the operations will generate post petition receivables and enhance pre petition collections on prior work; second, continued operations will allow the Debtors to more fully maintain the condition of existing assets such as the hundreds of items of heavy equipment and the improvements on the real property, and the operations at the quarry, all of which are other assets of these creditors., Making these expenditures will result in a stable and continuous stream of cash flow, thereby enhancing and preserving the value of the Debtors’ operations and providing adequate protection to the Bank. See McCombs Props. VI, Ltd. v. First Tex. Sav. Ass’n (In re McCombs Props. VI, Ltd.), 88 B.R. 261, 267 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1988) (finding that, by committing cash collateral to pay operating expenses and to improve and maintain real property, the debtor “substantially eliminated the risk of diminution” of the secured creditor’s interest in cash collateral).

12. Bankruptcy Rule 4001(b) permits a court to approve use of cash collateral during the 15-day period following the filing of a motion only to the “extent necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the estate pending a final hearing.” Here, the Debtors require immediate access to the cash collateral to, among other things, maintain the value of their contracts. If interim relief is not obtained, the Debtors’ efforts to pay its employees and assure vendors of continued payments on existing jobs will be virtually impossible, and the business will likely simply close. Accordingly, the Debtors request that the Court authorize the Debtors to immediately use the cash collateral in the amounts set forth in the Budget, pending a final hearing. At the final hearing, the Debtors request that the relief requested herein be granted on a permanent basis..

13. The Debtors have been unable to obtain new sources of financing. Similarly, the Debtors have been unable to find parties willing to advance funds in exchange for administrative expense claims. Based on the Debtors decades of experience in the construction industry, it believes that it will be impossible to find a DIP lender on an interim basis, and virtually impossible to find such a lender on any reasonable terms on a final basis. Indeed, using the existing Bonding Company as the DIP lender is practical and efficient given its thorough knowledge of the Debtor’s operations.

14. Section 364(c) authorizes the Debtors to incur debt post-petition as requested herein. If a debtor-in-possession is unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable as an administrative expense, the Bankruptcy Code authorizes such debtor-in-possession to incur debt secured by a lien on unencumbered property of the estate or secured by junior liens on other property of the estate already subject to liens. See 11 U.S.C. § 364(c)(2)&(3).

15. The Debtors' quarry, accounts receivable, equipment and inventory as well as certain real estate are property of the estate. See id. § 541(a).

16. Such authorization is in the best interests of the estates, the Bank, the construction vendors, and all other creditors for the reasons described herein. The best value for the Debtor will be realized if it is able to complete ongoing construction work and avoid incurring delay damages claims, and/or rejection damages claims. Moreover continuing operations at the quarry will build value by filling orders and increasing inventory pending a sale. The Debtor has considered alternatives however, no realistic alternative exists. The Bonding Company is the only party situated to have a strong incentive to complete the bonded construction projects and advance to pay for same.

VI. NOTICE

17. Notice of this Motion has been provided to: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) counsel for each of the Bank and the Bonding Company; (c) the twenty (20) largest unsecured creditors of each Debtor's respective estate; (d) those persons who have formally appeared and requested notice in this case pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002; (e) the Internal Revenue Service and other governmental entities required to receive notice under the Bankruptcy Rules or the Local Rules; and (f) the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors. The Debtors submit that no other or further notice need be provided.

VII. PRAYER

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that this Court enter an Order granting the requested relief on a final basis, and such other and further relief as is just and proper.
